

KS4 Signposting – Where to find suitable revision resources

Updated 9th October 2020

Subject	Where can students find relevant revision material within school systems?	Do you have any subject-specific apps available or that you would recommend?	Are there any particular websites that students should be aware of for your subject?	Are there any texts / revision guides that might be of use?	What Exam Board do you use?	What is the structure of your exam?
Mathematics	Subject Folders - Maths - KS4 - Revision, Choose the higher or foundation folder and there are past and practice papers to work through. Your class showbie group will have resources from lessons that your teachers have added and will be arranged by chapter or topic area.	Mathswatch on the ipad.	mathsgenie.co.uk corbettmaths.com dfrostmaths.com	We will enable the purchase of revision guides published by CGP for targeting specific grades and exam question practice. We also recommend the Corbettmaths revision cards for higher or foundation available to purchase from https://corbettmaths.com/	Edexcel	3 exams each 1 hour 30 minutes
MFL	Showbie. Information is organised by the class teacher into folders called topic names eg. Health or into Exam folders with mark schemes and exemplar questions / model answers eg. Writing Exam.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> MEMRISE for vocabulary learning. All Year 11s should be doing 10 minutes a day on that APP. Word Reference for looking up new vocabulary. Art & Design	Weekly information on Showbie and SMHW but they do not need to revise for test/exam so most information is via Showbie and SMHW.	Any drawing apps might be useful for pupils but again this is specific to projects that they are completing. Tate App is very useful.	Gallery websites are useful for pupils such as Tate, Saatchi, National Gallery. Artists individual pages also very helpful (specific to pupils).	Book: The Story of Art by E.H. Gohbrich, Ways of Seeing by J. Berger. Also books by Taschen are very helpful, again specific to Movement or Artist.	AQA	Due to the impact of Coronavirus the exam board has removed Component 2 for this year. As a result pupils will only be submitting Component 1, which will be made up from some of the work carried out in Year 10 and all of the work carried out in Year 11. Students will need to complete Component 1 in the normal way and will be marked out of 96 as usual. The assessment criteria remains the same. Not exam in traditional sense but ESA (Externally Set Assignment). Pupils receive question/starting point paper from board, have between 10-12 weeks to explore, research, refine etc and then complete a piece of work under timed conditions. GCSE = 10hours/ A Level = 15hours.
