Please be aware that the option blocks are subject to change. Changes to staffing may mean that options change block or are removed completely.

Please note that the school cannot guarantee that a student will be able to study their preferred course(s). However, although we cannot issue any guarantee, where a course is heavily oversubscribed, we will always do our best to ensure as many students as possible are taking their preferred courses. Where insufficient numbers request a course, the course may be withdrawn.
