Venerable Bishop Richard Challoner

During his lifetime and after his death, he was considered not only as a model of every virtue but as a saint. Indeed he was rewarded with the title of “venerable”. We are asked to pray that our Blessed Lord, through the Pope, may reward him further, by raising him to the altars of the Church as a Saint.

Prayer for the Beatification of Bishop Richard Challoner

O God who made your servant Richard, a true and faithful pastor of your little flock in England, raise him, we beseech you, to the altars of thy Church, that we, who have been taught by his word and example may invoke his name in heaven,
for the return of our country to belief in the Gospel, and to the unity of all Christians in the one Church of Jesus Christ.
We ask this through the same Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Guidance for use of the Tutor Group Prayer Booklet

Each morning an act of worship should be made. This can be led by yourself or a pupil and can be made up of prayers from this booklet, www.richardchalloner.com/spirituality, or both.

The following pages contain a selection of prayers suitable for collective worship within the Tutor group during morning registration. The prayers have been organised into different weekly themes:

- Week One: Safety of others
- Week Two: Vocations
- Week Three: Exams
- Week Four: Feast of the Ascension
- Week Five: Feast of Pentecost
- Week Six: Trinity Sunday

Each morning an act of worship should try and include:

1) Invitation - to mark the entry into prayer, like standing up and making the Sign of the Cross

2) Clear Theme & Message

3) Balance of speech & silence - try to vary the delivery of your theme to ensure that it appeals to as many as possible.

4) Time for Quiet Reflection - give time for them to take in and reflect on the theme

5) Prayer – this should be both led and collective - there should be a prayer which links in the theme, and an act of communal prayer from the page opposite.

6) Clear links with Catholic Ethos – if you are not using one of the themes above then ensure it is inline with the School's Catholic Ethos or the Liturgical Calendar.

General Prayers for Classroom Worship

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father,
Who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name.
Thy Kingdom come.
Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day,
Our daily bread,
And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil

Hail Mary

Hail Mary, full of grace.
The Lord is with thee.
Blessed art thou among women,
And blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.
Holy Mary, Mother of God,
Pray for us sinners,
Now, and at the hour of our death
Amen

Prayer of St Francis of Assisi

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.
Where there is hatred let me sow love,
Where there is injury let me sow pardon,
Where there is doubt let me sow faith,
Where there is despair let me give hope,
Where there is darkness let me give light,
And where there is sadness let me give joy.
O Divine Master, grant that I may try
Not to be comforted but to comfort,
Not to be understood but to understand,
Not to be loved but to love.
Because it is in giving that we receive,
It is in forgiving that we are forgiven,
And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Prayer of St Richard Of Chichester

Day by day,
O dear Lord,
Three things I pray:
To see thee more clearly,
Love thee more dearly,
Follow thee more nearly,
Day by day
By day by day.

Prayer of St Ignatius

Teach us good Lord to serve you as you deserve:
To give and not count the cost,
To fight and not heed the wounds,
To toil and not seek for rest,
To labour and to ask for no reward, save that of knowing that we do your will,
Through Jesus Christ our Lord,
Amen.

Augustine House - St Augustine of Canterbury

Feast Day: 27th May

Prayer to St Augustine of Canterbury:

God our Father, by the preaching of Saint Augustine of Canterbury, you led the people of England to the Gospel. May the fruits of his work continue in your Church. Grant that through his intercession, may the hearts of those who go astray return to the unity of your truth and that we may be of one mind in doing your will. Amen.

Becket House - St Thomas Becket

Feast Day: 29th December

Prayer to St Thomas Becket:

Almighty God, You granted the martyr Thomas the grace to give his life for the cause of justice. By his prayers make us willing to renounce for Christ our life in this world so that we may find it in heaven.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Columba House - St Columba of Iona

Feast Day: 9th June

Prayer to St Columba of Iona:

Let me bless almighty God,
whose power extends over sea and land,
whose angels watch over all.
Let me study sacred books to calm my soul:
I pray for peace, kneeling at heaven's gates.
Let me do my daily work, gathering seaweed, catching fish, giving food to the poor.
Let me say my daily prayers, sometimes chanting, sometimes quiet, always thanking God.
Delightful it is to live, on a peaceful isle,
serving the King of kings. Amen.

Dunstan House – St Dunstan of Canterbury

Feast Day: 19th May

Prayer to St Dunstan of Canterbury:

O God of truth and beauty

You gave your Bishop Dunstan the skills of music and metal working, and with gifts of administration and reforming zeal.

Teach us to see you as the source of all our gifts and talents, and help us to offer them for praise of worship and the spread of the Gospel message.

We ask this through your Son, our Lord, Jesus Christ, Who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, One God, for now and for ever. Amen.

Fisher House - St John Fisher

Feast Day: 22nd June

Prayer to St John Fisher:

Good Lord, set in thy Church strong and mighty pillars that may suffer and endure great labours, which also shall not fear persecution, neither death, but always suffer with a good will, slanders, shame and all kinds of torments, for the glory and praise of thy holy Name.

By this manner, good Lord, the truth of thy Gospel shall be preached throughout the world.

Therefore, merciful Lord, exercise thy mercy, show it indeed upon thy Church. Amen.

More House - St Thomas More

Feast Day: 22nd June

Prayer to St Thomas More:

O Lord, give us a mind that is humble, quiet, peaceable, patient and charitable, and a taste of your Holy Spirit in all our thoughts, words, and deeds.

O Lord, give us a lively faith, a firm hope, a fervent charity, a love of you. Take from us all luke warmness in meditation and all dullness in prayer. Give us fervour and delight in thinking of you, your grace, and your tender compassion toward us. Give us, good Lord, the grace to work for the things we pray for.

Amen.

Week One: Safety of Others

We pray lord for those on their way to work,
For the emergency services who will travel at high speed on land water or air to bring help to others.
For those starting a new life as they move house;
For those travelling to or from prison;
For those people who go into hospital today;
For young people on their way to school, college or university;
For those who are lost on the journey of life;
For those who will die today and make their final journey;
On all these people Lord we ask your blessing.

Amen (Nicholas Hutchinson)

God keep you in the fellowship of his saints.
Christ protect you by the ministry of his angels.
The spirit make you holy in God's service;
And the blessing of God almighty,
The father, the son and the Holy Spirit
Be upon you and remain with you always.

(Michael Perham)

We pray for world peace,
that ways of aggression and violence against fellow humans and against God's creation may be renounced, and that world leaders may lessen the threat of nuclear destruction.
We pray especially for our leaders and all others who strive to bring peace.

(Adapted from 'Worship in an Indian Context')

Oh God, our heavenly Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named: we entrust to your loving care the members of our families, both near and far.
Supply their needs; guide their footsteps; keep them in safety of body and soul; and may your peace rest upon our homes and upon our dear ones everywhere. Amen

(Frank Colquhoun)

O God,
Protect those whom we love when they are separated from us.
Guide them when they are uncertain,
Comfort them when they are lonely or afraid,
And bless them with the warmth of your presence.
Thank you that neither space nor time
Can cut us off from the love we have for each other and for you.

(Angela Ashwin)

Week Two: Vocations

Grant Lord, that those who you call to enter the priesthood and religious life may have the generosity to answer your call, so that those who need your help may always find it.
We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen

(St Benedict's Prayer book)

"May you be filled with the knowledge of God's will, in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, to lead a life worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing him, bearing fruit in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God".

(From Colossians 1: 9-10)

God our father,
We pray for those whom you have called to serve your people as priests.
Every day, may they live in your presence and deepen their friendship with Jesus, your Son.
Fill them with your Spirit, inspire them to be faithful in prayer and always place their trust in you.
May they grow in faith and compassion as they celebrate the sacraments of your love, bring good news to the poor and heal the broken hearted.
Inspire them to live in such a way that they are credible witnesses of the transforming power of your love, as they share the hopes and the joys the sorrows and the frustrations of those entrusted to their care.
Give them the gifts they need to accompany your people along the path of holiness. Amen

(Nicholas Hutchinson)

Heavenly Father,
We pray for those who have gone to other countries with the good news of Jesus:
When their work is difficult and tiring, make them strong;
When they are lonely and homesick
Remind them that you are with them;
When they are uncertain what to do, guide them.
Keep them at all times loving you, for Jesus' sake. Amen

(Michael Botting)

Save us Jesus from hurrying away, because we do not wish to help, because we do not know how to help,
because we dare not.
Inspire us to use our lives serving one another.

(A New Zealand Prayer book)

Week Three: Prayers for Exams

Lord, we need your help.
We need a calm mind; grant us your peace.
We need a clear head, grant us your wisdom.
We need a careful spirit, grant us your patience.
We need inspiration; grant us your enthusiasm.
Keep us from all panic
As we put our trust in your power to help us keep us this day

(Kathleen a. Goodacre)

Lord, guide and help me through these exams,
so that I may do justice to all that I have learned.
Help me, and all of us doing exams to keep their importance in perspective.

Nick Aiken

Help me Lord to concentrate on what I have learned and not worry about anything else. You who know all things, prompt my memory with the light of understanding that I may make good use of what I have been taught, and not let my knowledge go to waste.

(A Downside Pupil)

Although I have studied well, I cannot always remember what I have learned. Help me to keep calm and not be worried, so that I will remember what I have learned and do my best. Then, if I fail, I need not be ashamed; and if I pass, please help me not to boast but give thanks to you for helping me to use the gifts which you have given. Thank you, God.

(Nancy Martin)

Lord,
It's started; exam time...why is it always sunny?
I hate revision. It's rubbish.
But if I don't do it, where will I be then?
I'm not sure that I want to go to college
But if I don't do my best
I know that I'll be disappointed.
Which I guess says it all.
I've just got to get on with it
The summer holidays aren't that far away,
So the question is, do I want to spend them
Feeling gutted that I didn't do my best
Or proud that I did?
The answers simple, isn't it, Lord?

(Dave Gatward)

Week Four: The Feast of the Ascension

When Jesus ascended into heaven, according to the gospel account, he returned to his father to sit at his right hand in glory until the end of time. But he also promised not to leave us like orphans. He remains with us, more closely now because he is not just physically present in the world any longer: no space or time separates us from him. He is the Lord of all creation, and guides everything to fulfilment in the kingdom of God. In preparation of the feast of the Ascension, we pray for the power of God's Spirit to fill out hearts and minds so that we can do his will and carry on the work of the Gospel.

(Cardinal Basil Hume)

Lord Jesus, who after your resurrection from the dead gloriously ascended into heaven: grant us the help of your loving kindness, that according to your promise your spirit will always be with us here on earth, and we with you in heaven, where with the father and the Holy spirit you live and reign one God for ever and ever.

(Gelasian Sacramentary)

"The Ascension of Christ is his liberation from all restrictions of time and space. It does not represent his removal from earth, but his constant presence everywhere on earth."

(William Temple, Archbishop of Canterbury 1942 – 44)

When Jesus returned to his Father, perhaps his Father said to him:

"Son, what was the worst of all? Was it the nails?

"No Father, the hardest thing wasn't the nails, it was the kiss of betrayal – the kiss from someone I had trusted as a close friend."

Help us Lord, to remain loyal to you and to all of our friends through good times and bad times.

(Based on a reflection by G.K.Chesterton)

God our Father,
to those who love you, everything works out for good,
because you have chosen us
to bear the image of Jesus, your Son, who not only dies for us, but rose from the dead,
and now sits on your right hand,
praying for us as we commemorate this Ascension day.
And so with you on our side, who can be against us?
Even if we face hard times or are threatened – your love is greater still,
and nothing can ever separate us from your love.
Even in difficulties, Father, we can never be failures because of the power of your love.

Amen (Nicholas Hutchinson)

Week Five: The Feast of Pentecost

Holy Spirit, be with us throughout this day,
Strengthen us in our work; enlighten us in our study,
Make us constantly aware of each other and you,
So that we may live every moment of this day as you would have us do.

(Michael Buckley)

“When the day of Pentecost came they were altogether in one place. Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them. When they heard this sound, a crowd came together in bewilderment because each one heard them speaking their own language. Utterly amazed, they asked, “Are not all these men who are speaking Galileans? Then how is it that each one of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene; visitors from Rome (both Jews and converts to Judaism; Cretans and Arabs – we hear them declaring the wonders of the world on our own tongues!” Amazed and perplexed they asked each other, “What does this mean?” Some, however, made fun of them and said, “They have had too much wine.”

(From Acts 2: 1 – 13)

“The Ascension of Christ is his liberation from all restrictions of time and space. It does not represent his removal from earth, but his constant presence everywhere on earth.”

(William Temple, Archbishop of Canterbury 1942 – 44)

God our Father,
Renew our spirits by your Holy Spirit.
Bring us closer to you so that we do your work gladly and do not find loving you a burden but something to be joyful for.
Amen (Benjamin Jenks)

God our Father, this feast day celebrates the pouring out of the Holy Spirit on the first community of those who really believed that Jesus was risen from the dead.
They received the gifts of knowledge, wisdom and understanding and the ability to make balanced judgments all enabling them to convey to others the good news of your overwhelming love and acceptance and forgiveness.
And so we ask you today God to help us be the people that you want us to be and enable us to fulfil the calling and the mission that you have for each one of us.

Amen (Nicholas Hutchinson)

Week Six: Prayers for Trinity Sunday

O Father, your power is greater than all powers.
O Son, under your leadership we cannot fear anything.
O Spirit, under your protection there is nothing
we cannot overcome.

Amen (Nicholas Hutchinson)

You are holy, God the Creator, giving us richly all of the things that we enjoy.
You are holy, Christ the Saviour of the world, made flesh to set us free.
You are holy, Spirit of truth and love, willing to dwell in us.
You are holy and blessed, O God, eternal Trinity, and we worship you.

(From The Service Book of the United Reformed Church)

Glory be to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit,
as it was in the beginning is now and ever shall be world without end

Amen (Traditional)

God, we praise you.
Father all powerful,
Christ Lord and Saviour,
Spirit of Love,
drawing us to share in your life and your love.
One God, three persons,
be near to the people formed in your image,
close to the world your love brings to life.
We ask you this, Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
one God, true and living, for ever and ever.

(From The Liturgy of the Hours)

May the Life of the Lord Jesus and the love of God the Father and the companionship of the Holy Spirit be with us all.

Amen (Adapted from 2 Corinthians 13:13)
