Art FAQs

Can I take A Level if I didn't take GCSE?

Not having the GCSE makes it very difficult but not impossible. You would need to have a portfolio of work to show your ability and have had a discussion with Subject Leader in advance.

What mediums can I work in?

We encourage pupils to explore all ways of working early in Year 12 and then specialise in one or two areas as the course progresses.

Does A Level art go well with other creative subjects?

A: Lots of pupils take Art alongside Photography or DT and this is a good combination. The only thing to consider is that these combinations can be coursework heavy and as a result you will need to manage time effectively.
