Prayers for Morning Worship – 17th to 21st May

Theme for the week – Feast of Pentecost

Holy Spirit, be with us throughout this day,
Strengthen us in our work; enlighten us in our study,
Make us constantly aware of each other and you,
So that we may live every moment of this day as you would have us do.

(Michael Buckley)

“When the day of Pentecost came they were altogether in one place. Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them. When they heard this sound, a crowd came together in bewilderment because each one heard them speaking their own language. Utterly amazed, they asked, “Are not all these men who are speaking Galileans? Then how is it that each one of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene; visitors from Rome (both Jews and converts to Judaism; Cretans and Arabs – we hear them declaring the wonders of the world on our own tongues!” Amazed and perplexed they asked each other, “What does this mean?” Some, however, made fun of them and said, “They have had too much wine.”

(From Acts 2: 1 – 13)

“The Ascension of Christ is his liberation from all restrictions of time and space. It does not represent his removal from earth, but his constant presence everywhere on earth.”

(William Temple, Archbishop of Canterbury 1942 – 44)

God our Father,
Renew our spirits by your Holy Spirit.
Bring us closer to you so that we do your work gladly and do not find loving you a burden but something to be joyful for.
Amen (Benjamin Jenks)

God our Father, this feast day celebrates the pouring out of the Holy Spirit on the first community of those who really believed that Jesus was risen from the dead.
They received the gifts of knowledge, wisdom and understanding and the ability to make balanced judgments all enabling them to convey to others the good news of your overwhelming love and acceptance and forgiveness.
And so we ask you today God to help us be the people that you want us to be and enable us to fulfil the calling and the mission that you have for each one of us.

Amen (Nicholas Hutchinson)

Bishop Richard Challoner

During his lifetime and after his death, he was considered not only as a model of every virtue but as a saint. We are asked to pray that our Blessed Lord, through the Pope, may reward him further, by raising him to the altars of the Church as a Saint.

Prayer for the Beatification of Bishop Richard Challoner

O God who made your servant Richard, a true and faithful pastor of your little flock in England, raise him, we beseech you, to the altars of thy Church, that we, who have been taught by his word and example
may invoke his name in heaven, for the return of our country to belief in the Gospel, and to the unity of all Christians in the one Church of Jesus Christ.
We ask this through the same Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Bishop Richard Challoner
